CAPTAIN PARKS CORRECTED STORY

The story in the Bulletin of yesterday telling of the proposed military roads which would be built by the government on account of the excessive freight rates asked by the railway companies, came from perfectly reliable authority. Not only this, but the story was also submitted to Captain Parks, and was read and corrected by him.

Y. M. C. A. DINNER

The Y. M. C. A. New Year dinner was attended by forty-four people last night. The affair was one of the best in the history of the Y. M. C. A. in Honolulu. Messrs. Robbins and Hunn, Secretary Super, Dr. Hand, and Directors F. C. Atherton and Ed Towse were prominent in making the affair a success.

Messrs. Oliver, Minchin, Martin, Kelsey, Blanchard, and others rendered musical selections, much to the enjoyment of those present. Mr. Ewing officiated as pianist.

Both the dinner and social were gratifying to the fortunate ones who were present.

Miss Woodard, at 1141 Fort street, has still on hand a very nice assortment of fancy goods and underwear. A very pretty dressmaker house gown has made a great hit and she can hardly fill orders for it. The Hawaiian mums, the most comfortable of night dresses, with French embroidery, is made of the finest materials. Orders taken for stamping and embroidery.
